

Community Safety and Wellbeing Northumberland

One Year in Review

Lisa Horne, Community and Social Services Director

Alanna Wierenga, Community Services Manager

Lisa Martin, Community Safety and Wellbeing Coordinator

Summary

- One year into implementation
- Today we will:
 - Look back at the accomplishments to date of community safety and well being planning implementation in Northumberland
 - Discuss future planning and moving forward into the next phase of Community Safety and Wellbeing in Northumberland

A Look Back

- Governance structure established and implemented
 - Collaborative
 - Data Group
 - Network
- OMSSA Network
- Communications Strategy
 - SharePoint
 - NCCSS Website

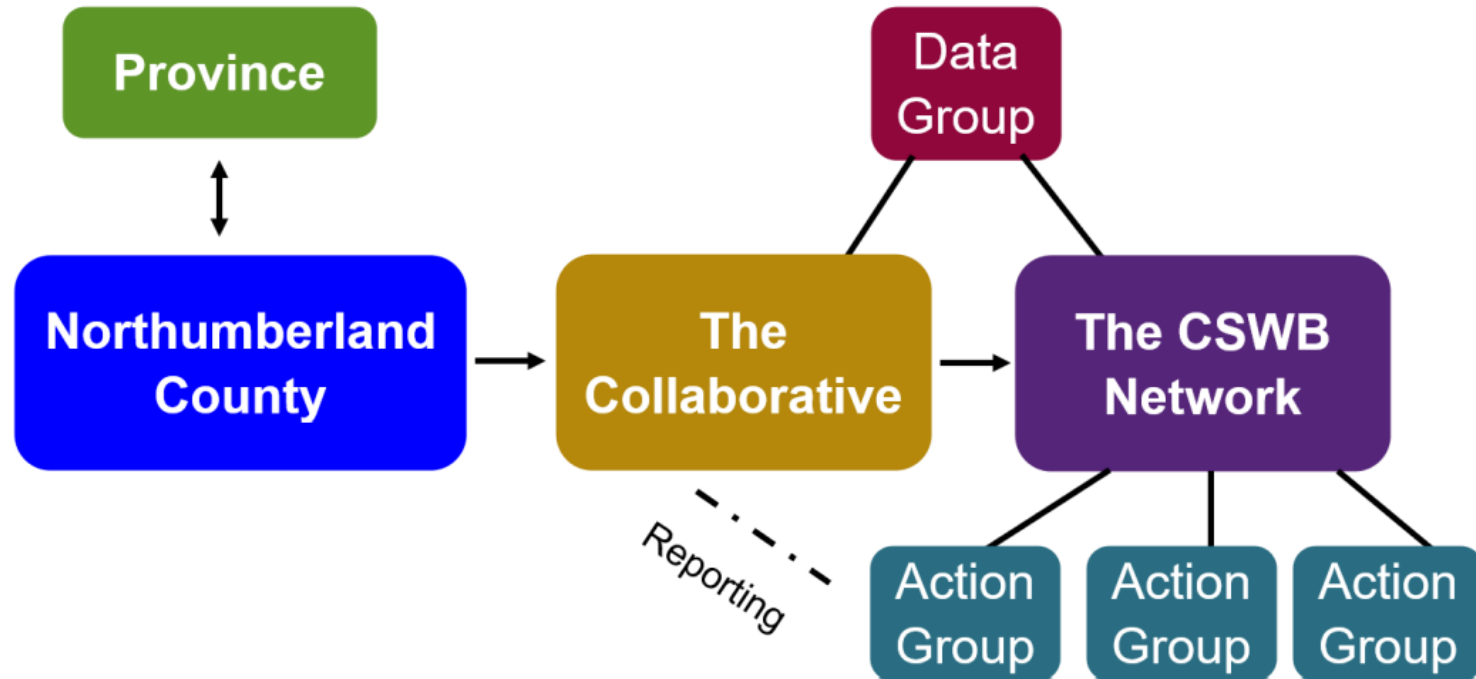

A Look Back (Cont.)

- Action Group collaboration
 - Inventory tools deployed and received
 - Data agreements signed
 - Data collection workbooks deployed and reporting structure determined quarterly
- Internal data review

Action Groups

Governance Structure

Accomplishments

- 2023 Winter Warming Room
- Funding Applications submitted
- OHT-N Collaboration
- Training Opportunities developed (Bridges out of Poverty and CTDC Trainings)
- Pilot Projects (Social Prescribing)

Social Prescribing

- Pilot project started January 2022
- Funded through Social Services Relief Funding
- Over 100 patients seen
- Community Health Centres of Northumberland will be continuing the program

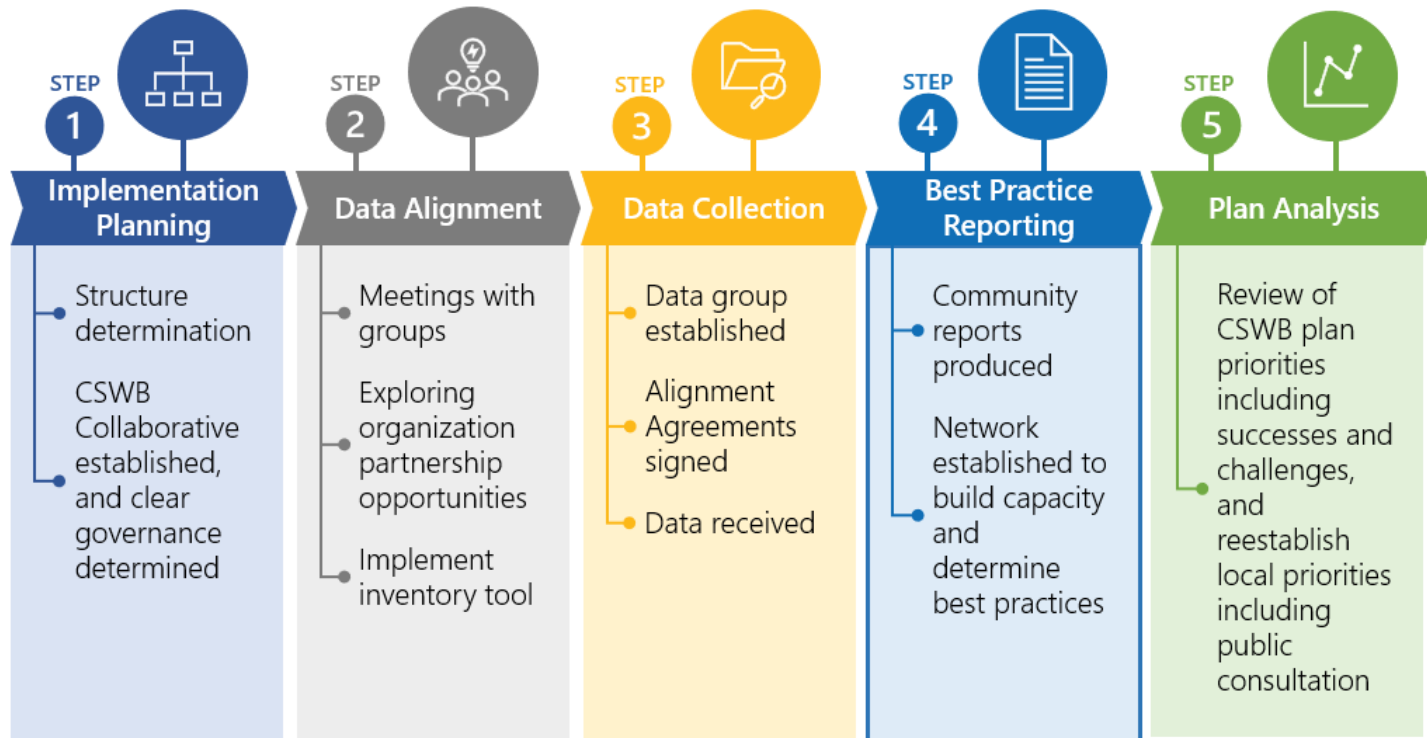

Data Group

- First meeting occurred in March of 2022
- Clear terms of reference and data sharing discussions have occurred
- Ongoing identification of data points available within the community
- SharePoint developed as a means of information sharing and tracking

Implementation Timeline

Community Safety and Well-Being Plan

Implementation Plan Timeline

CURRENT STEP

Future

- Identify and secure future resources to support the collaborative and the work associated with this table for growth
- Support and grow the action tables
Review of existing measures
- Grow our baseline data and evidence planning and priority setting
- Plan for future community consultations
- Plan for education or signature events
Communication plan